One of our Featured Entertainers is the one and only Sasha. Not only has she been showcased on the Official Yellow Rose matchbooks, but she has also appeared on the cover and centerfold of TAG Magazine. Even more, she was recently seen during prime time in the hit TV series "Friday Night Lights" and also made an appearance in the blockbuster movie "Grindhouse".

From Hispanic and Cherokee Indian origins, Sasha is indeed a beauty to all that see her. With the right curves in all the right places, many find it difficult not to stop and stare when she walks into the room. And when she steps on to the stage, she immediately commands the attention of everyone in the room.

A fan of Hip-Hop and Rap, Sasha's favorite band is from here in Austin Texas: The Dirty Wormz! In fact, she made a special guest appearance at a recent autograph session for The Wormz accompanying their music review in TAG Magazine. When she's not on stage, one of her favorite local hotspots is the swank Latitude.

Along with great music and local nightlife, Sasha enjoys the finest cuisines as well. Avocado Egg Rolls is one of her favorite dishes, and the ultra luxurious Kona Grill is one of her favorite places to dine.

To spend time with Sasha, a lady who is truly a sight for any eyes, make plans to enjoy your Friday afternoons at the World Famous Yellow Rose of Austin.
